Our Rock Block Metro Nashville Public School Percussion students shared they would like to continue creating music “Because music is life and is what makes people who they are.” and “Because music is my friend.”

One, shared they wouldn't be able to “because I don't have an instrument.”

This is where YEAH! programs come in and provide access to opportunities for young talents to pursue their musical interests and amplify their voices at Rock Block AND camp next year.

Give the Gift of Connection, Creation & Collaboration!

This year, we've taken more strides in making a difference. YEAH! proudly introduced dedicated scholarships, opening doors for Trans Youth, LaVergne Middle and High School, and Rutherford School students.

🌈 The Crisi Manley Inclusivity Scholarship:

In memory of Christina Elizabeth Manley, a cherished camp volunteer and beloved LaVergne High School teacher. This scholarship is a tribute to her unwavering commitment to inclusivity and passion for inspiring young people by sharing her love of music.

🦋 Claire and Vic's Chrysalis Cohort Scholarship:

A celebration and opportunity for trans/nonbinary youth, this scholarship embodies the sense of belonging fostered by YEAH! camps. Victor and Claire, influenced by our community spirit, stand as proof of the transformative power within our programs.

Your support guarantees the perpetuation of these legacies, re-affirms our dedication to inclusivity and expands access to music education for youth of all backgrounds.

Join the ranks of esteemed supporters like The Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee, who recently awarded YEAH! a $5,000 grant for our June 2024 camp. Your contribution helps provide enriching experiences for 50-60 youth, building character, self-esteem, and community through music education at YEAH! Rocks camp next June.

Our surveys from 🥁 Percussion and 🎤 Hip-Hop students at our Rock Block Metro Nashville Public School program this Fall revealed that, in addition to improved musical skills, they also ranked the skills they developed:

#1 - Self-Confidence 🎵

#2 - Collaboration ⚡

#3 - Appreciation of differences ("Because everyone has something their different about.") 🥰

Coming soon!

YEAH! Rocks summer camp 🎵 will be held the first or second week of June 2024.

🌟📣 Empower Youth Voices - Like those from our 2022 camp who wrote "Club of Confused," 📣🎸

*The day the world turned upside down
Smiles turned into a frown
The city turned into a town
The people began to wear their crown hey, hey, hey!*

*The statues moved
The winners began to lose
Welcome to the club of confused*

Your support creates echoes of change. Join YEAH! in empowering youth voices and be a part of something EXTRAordinary.

Thank you for being the melody to our 🎵 harmony. Together, let's 🏗️ build a harmonious tomorrow!
